

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Towers at Laguna Woods Village Hosted Open House December 29th

The Towers at Laguna Woods Village hosted its Holiday Open House on December 29th. Six local brokers were represented among the attending Realtors and many visitors were pleasantly surprised and anxious to learn more about the high value of Towers living.

In an uncertain economy, people all over the country are concerned about their retirement options and the Open House was an excellent opportunity to get questions answered regarding high rise living at the Towers at Laguna Woods Village in South Orange County, California.

Attendees learned how the Towers proves to be a very viable option for those who struggle with monthly bills, dinner preparation, and boredom while residents of the Towers make one monthly payment for cable, utilities, dinner, housekeeping, and fun. Members can come home to a tidied and cleaned home and dinner laid out with a plethora of options and the views are spectacular!

For a fourteen story building, the Towers remains "the hidden treasure", invisible from neighboring freeways and local communities and yet the premier active adult community for those 55 plus that offers the ultimate in affordable, retirement living with all the amenities of a fine hotel and the activities of a California resort.

Tours can be reserved any day of the week for those who missed the Open House and the Towers offers an excellent Sunday Brunch on the third Sunday of the month.
